Department of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Chet:

I very much appreciate your letter of 5 June 1961
concerning the assignment of [redacted]
to our Coordination Staff.

STAT

Your willingness to make available an official with such long and varied experience in intelligence work will certainly be of great value and assistance to the Coordination Staff in performing its important and complex duties.

I am especially grateful for your promise of cooperation and good wishes in achieving success in the work of this Staff.

With such support, we look forward to the development of still more effective coordination and management of the entire foreign intelligence effort.

Yours sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles

SECRET

June 5, 1961

Dear Allen:

Thank you for your letter of May 6 requesting the assignment of a representative to your Coordination Staff. The Department of State will provide a representative and, as requested, will fund his salary and related personnel costs. Perhaps the best indication that I can give of the importance which the Department of State attaches to the mission of the staff is to be found in the qualifications of the man we are assigning to it -

25X1
[redacted] who has had long experience in intelligence work. I am enclosing a brief biographic sketch of him.

25X1

I know of no person in the Department better prepared than [redacted] by training, ability, and understanding of the significance of community effort in the intelligence field to contribute to the work of the Coordination Staff. For the success of this work, I send you a promise of hearty cooperation and all good wishes.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

Acting Secretary
